Kinsman Robinson Galleries (KRG) has taken significant action to hold accountable those responsible for various incendiary and libelous articles accessible to the public through the Internet (available at <http://norvalmorrisseau.blogspot.com/>). The allegations published on this blog are unfair and false, offensive and mean-spirited. These allegations were published either with the knowledge that they were false, or with conscious disregard for the truth. The comments made by at least one third party have damaged and will continue to damage KRG's reputation and business. These comments are of a matter and character that have the tendency to injure KRG's reputation. As a proximate result of Ugo Matulic aka Spirit Walker's publication of these articles and comments, KRG has suffered loss to their trade, business and reputation all contributing to KRG's general and special damages. These false allegations are made against a leading commercial art gallery with an enviable reputation built over the last 30 years. As members of the Art Dealers Association of Canada (ADAC), KRG commits to the highest ethical standards in the conduct of business and complies with all requirements of applicable law. Furthermore, KRG warrants the authenticity of authorship of each and every Norval Morrisseau artwork which it sells.
