

To accomplish what I have started and to die in it feeling I have fulfilled what I started - to reach a level where I and Manitou and the Indian will always keep the Indian faith alive - to be a great Artist and Preserver of Indian culture. I accept it fully as a duty in life which was set forth for, to set an example."

I paint with these colours to heal,
my paintings honour the Anishnaabe ancestors who have roamed the Great Lakes for centuries upon centuries.
